... I tried so hard to solve this puzzle that I finally got tired. On the other hand, this puzzle was one of the main mysteries of my childhood. If one of the guys asked: what is the most important thing in life? - I could give any, the most idiotic answer. But when I myself had to choose what was most important to me, I realized that I could not understand anything, that I myself lacked knowledge and life experience. I didn't care how to solve the riddle. I gave up before reaching the final.
