„Spirit of Shotgun: Platforming Escapade, Never in Silence" is a 2D platformer adventure with a twist! With no other way to move around, your quest is to blast yourself upwards with the kickback of a shotgun, and find your way to the surface of the world! Story „The prophecy spoke of a light in the darkness. The Sun's final spark would descend into the deepest abyss, and await the coming of the Saviour…" You find yourself in a strange predicament – being stuck up to your waist inside a talking wooden barrel, who has – along with you – lost it's memories to the darkness of the Abyss. You can't recall why you ventured into the deepest place on Earth, yet know that the lantern you carry is of great importance to your quest. Can you rediscover the past and uncover the fate of the world – and the point of your journey – as you climb upwards? Guided by nothing but the Holy Spirit of an almost extinct religion called „The Way of the Shotgun", you need to light holy shrines, replenish ammo, uncover Ancient Shotguns and use them to reach places no ordinary shotgun-less human could. Gameplay Your shotgun can fire twice before reloading! Shoot once, then again in mid-air to alter the direction of your flight, or blast both barrels at once for a much stronger jump! Mastery is key! Learning from your mistakes is a must - every stage of the climb presents an increased level of challenge, with no checkpoints to guard your progress. Should you make a grave mistake – climb once more from the depth you fell to! - Multiplayer! Join your friends on the journey to the surface! Other players shall appear in your game as "phantoms"- ghosts from different worlds and timelines. Watch them closely as they advance alongside you, and learn from their mistakes! - Light Shrines as you climb upwards! The ancient Sprit of Shotgun was forgotten and only you can bring back it's former glory! Shine your lantern on abandoned shrines to restore them, and have them provide you with ammunition! - The ammo you carry is limited! Should you make too many mistakes and end up with no shells left, you'll be forced to return to the last Shrine you lit! Keep an eye on your ammo count at all times, as shrines are not always guaranteed to c9d1549cdd

Scoreboard Entering the Crucible is quite simple, it consists of two rooms, you have to run through them, fighting enemies along the way until you make it through the chamber. You can only do this if you have the powerful Crucible Skin in your inventory. The first room is the Ramp Room, it is quite small but has a lot of enemies, the enemies are quite weak, but if they get behind you, they can hurt you. The next room is the Vault, it is quite big and has three rooms in it, the vault has two doors, the way in and the way out. Rules The rules for this game are simple, you have 3 actions a second, if you use one of those actions, it will take a second before the action becomes available again, even if it's not your turn. This is an action system that gives you plenty of opportunities to use your powers. Synergy All the different items in the game have a synergy together, which means, that if you use one of the power actions, the other items in the inventory will have a slightly bigger effect. Power Action Name Effect Weapon Weapon Damage Stun Time Shield Shield Damage Stun Time Cooldown Parry Costs 1 Energy Cooldown Skill Costs 2 Energy Cooldown Impale Costs 3 Energy Cooldown Sway Costs 5 Energy Cooldown Duplicate Costs 1 Energy Costs 3 Energy Cooldown Devour Costs 1 Energy Costs 2 Energy Cooldown Shade Costs 5 Energy Costs 6 Energy Cooldown Every action has a different Cooldown timer, which means, that if you're not used to the game, you have to learn how to manage your actions and the cooldown. There are 2 types of skills, the first one you use 1 time, and it gives you a shield, which costs 2 energy, and it also adds 2 seconds to your Stun Time, which means, that you get to play your attack and then immediately block it with your shield. This is great for boss fights, as the longer you can stay

Songs with Presume I Was Blinded By Glee We're a month or so away from the THOTCON (ed: not T-H-OT-C-O-N!) here at "Felix'd" and it's fair to say I've been keeping you guys in the dark regarding that, and all other relevant back-up plans. Anywho – like some of you, I'm a sucker for, "Hey it's catchy and its fun!", so what you're about to witness is essentially, my long time dream-like doodle and perhaps something that a smidgen grand of everyone will enjoy? If you're on the fence about the whole THOTCON, just remember that it's all about the laughs. Happy schadenfreude. I am touched that there's an effort being made towards a positive use of the "we're a month away" bit, and that I get to be part of it. I've never been a huge plot-line fan-analyst – I mean, I'm actually quite the patron of the show's writing staff and I respect their craft – but I'd very much like to be in on the game when it finally goes live if you're ready to let me. I've assembled a list of reasons I think that, even if you're not the one penning the actual scripts and such, and let's not forget, John has thrown me some dibs on the lead role, you'll probably be into it, and that's something I can't say that I've be able to feel for the last few years. So, a very special thanks to Martin for unclogging the clapperboard to allow for another screen test. I'm certain he probably won't cast George Clooney as himself but he might as well try. (As I was typing this, Wes texted and informs me that he does have the plan for us all, and it likely involves flashing lights and a lot of upbeat music. I snorted.) MY REASONING From what I can read of it, the story centers around "Felix" (clearly
